

REVISION SIGNPOST

GERMAN

Drop-in Sessions

Thursday: 3.30pm on a Week 1

Extra speaking sessions are also available by request, please email Mr and Mrs Hall to arrange a suitable time or pop into the Languages office on a Tuesday. Mr Hall can also be found in the Pastoral office.

Once all the content has been taught, lessons will be focused on exam techniques covering all 4 skill areas and to go through practice papers. You will also focus on IRP and speaking card skills; Mr Hall will focus on book and film skills; Mrs Hall will concentrate on topics, exam skills and grammar revision.

By the end of the Easter break you will need to have revised your AS themes at A2 Level but also the A2 themes. Topic-specific vocabulary needs to be recalled easily and your grammar should be at the required standard for A2, i.e. accurate conjugation of verbs in different tenses, word order, cases and adjective endings. You should aim to re-watch the film and to read the book and study guides again. Use the resources you are given to help you plan potential answers. Lists of speaking questions should be used as a guide of what to expect in the speaking exam. The IRP presentation and discussion material should be perfected.

Study Leave

Support will be available during your original timetabled lessons slots. We will also be available at other times up until the exams – please email a member of the languages department or pop into the office to arrange a time.

Resources

Use Kerboodle to revise and test yourself with the interactive exercises and the extra reading and listening exercises.

Use www.languagesonline.org.uk to practice your grammar. Use YouTube to listen to short passages in German about topics of interest. Read and listen to the news on zdf and listen to the interviews.
