

BEECHEN CLIFF

Friday 17th March 2023

Dear Parents/Carers,

Firstly, please let me give you a warm welcome to Beechen Cliff School.

I am delighted to welcome your son to our school now that the Local Authority has allocated places. We very much look forward to meeting you in the coming months and have a carefully planned schedule of transition events devised to help settle your son into our school community.

In the meantime, please can we ask that you complete the following Google Form by typing this link <https://tinyurl.com/48m8ndxf> into your internet browser. We appreciate your support with this. If you have any difficulties accessing this form, do not hesitate to contact us at the school on the following email - headteacher@beechencliff.org.uk.

Once we have your details, future communication will be via email. Please look out for communication from us with upcoming dates and dates for your diary.

You may also want to watch our school production this month which will be performed at Hayesfield's Roper Theatre during the last week of this term. Details of how to buy tickets can be found here: <http://www.baththeatreschool.com/tickets/>. There is a special ticket rate for students coming from our feeder schools.

Yours sincerely
