

BEECHEN CLIFF WEEKLY NEWSLETTER

Newsletter 2nd October

Message from the Headteacher

Dear Parents and Carers,

Over the next two weeks we have Parent Information Evenings taking place for parents and carers of pupils in Year 10 and Year 11. Further details have also been sent via email and we hope to see you at these evenings.

Next week, Friday 10th October is World Mental Health Day. This week students in Years 7-10 have talked about mental health in their tutor time and Mr Hall has also led assemblies on the theme particularly in the context of online. Year 12 students also had an assembly with Miss Netto focussing on mental health, independence and meeting the challenges of Sixth Form, and some Year 13 students undertook training in the Solution Focussed approach in order to support the wellbeing of their peers. We believe it is really important that students are confident talking about Mental Health, that there is no stigma and that we all support each other in our school community.

Over the next few weeks we will be celebrating Black History month, which continues throughout October. This will include themed assemblies including a nationally broadcast live assembly, dedicated PSHE activities in tutor time sessions, equalities prefects newsletter piece and articles on our digital screens, and some Year 9 pupils will get the opportunity to take part in a Caribbean cooking lesson. We will also be participating in Show Racism the Red Card's annual Wear Red Day on 17th October.

This week the Year 7 visits to Tir-y-Cwm have begun and we hope all the boys enjoy the trips over the coming weeks

Dropping off and collecting pupils from school

Where possible we would be grateful if parents/carers could drop off/pick up pupils on Bear Flat. The car park outside of Cook is available for use and this reduces the traffic on the avenues up to school.

If you do need to drive up to the school please use the unofficial one-way system up Shakespeare Avenue and down Kipling Avenue. Please ensure that the speed limit is kept to and that the parking bays are used. To ensure the safety of all pupils and other pedestrians, please do not stop and drop off/pick up on the yellow lines.

Thank you for your support.

Helping Your Child with Homework

Students are now back into the swing of things at school and will now be receiving regular homework. For some students and parents, homework can sometimes feel like a battle. In secondary school students are expected to manage more subjects, more deadlines, and more independent study than they will have experienced before. As parents, you can play an important role in making homework less stressful and more effective.

Create the right environment

A quiet, well-lit space, free from distractions like TV or phones, helps your child to concentrate. Having the same spot for homework each day builds routine and focus. If possible, avoid this being their bedroom as it can make it harder to focus with the distraction of toys, electronics and the temptation to lie on the bed!

Show interest and try to let them take control

Ask your child what tasks they have, how they plan to tackle them, and whether they'd like support. Encourage them to plan a schedule for when homework fits around their other commitments. Three blasts of homework per week works better for many students than trying to fit it all into one day at the weekend.

Break it down

Some assignments can seem overwhelming. Help your child divide big tasks into smaller steps and set short goals. Praise progress along the way – effort matters just as much as results.

Encourage balance

Remind your child to take breaks, get fresh air, and keep up with hobbies or sports. A healthy balance between schoolwork, rest, and play supports both wellbeing and learning.

Stay positive

Homework can be frustrating, but your calm encouragement makes a difference. Let your child know it's okay to struggle sometimes – persistence and asking for help are part of learning. If they have spent the allocated time on a piece of homework and not been able to finish it, they can let their teacher know this via Google Classroom. Nobody is expected to spend longer than the allocated time.

Support from School

- Homework Club runs every day in the school library from 15:20-16:20. There is always a Teaching Assistant available to help.
- Contact the class teacher via your child's Google Classroom page to ask for help/clarification or assistance.

Mrs J Blair

Assistant Headteacher (SEND/CO and Pupil Premium Lead)

Personal Information Updates

If you need to amend any of your personal/contact details, such as phone numbers, addresses etc, you can do this on your child's Arbor account. Alternatively, you can email headteacher@beechencliff.mnsp.org.uk and we will make the changes for you.

Show Racism the Red Card—Wear Red Day—17th October 2025

2025 is the 11th Anniversary of Wear Red Day and on Friday October 17th we will be joining with many others around the country and participating in Wear Red Day as part of a collective commitment to take a stand against racism.

On the day we are encouraging all students to wear an item of red clothing in addition to their school uniform.

Should you wish to donate to the day information is available online:

THE LIBRARY NEWS

A calm, quiet space to read and work

All about the Books

We have so much going on in the library at the moment!

The MNSP School Librarian Book Awards have been launched for 2026. These awards have been set up by the school librarians across the Trust. Each school has nominated a number of recently-published books which have been made into a longlist. We have encouraged pupils to have a look at the titles and blurbs then come to the library to vote for the books they would like to read. The votes from across all schools will be counted and Mr Williams, the CEO of the Trust, has agreed to pay for sets of the shortlisted books for each school. You can see the longlist here:

MNSP Book Award Long List

See the next page for information about the new WHOLE SCHOOL BOOK CLUB - open to pupils, students, staff and parents!

If you want any help with reading, please get in touch. My email is:

READING TOP TIP:

FAMILIES: Share the same book!

I got this brilliant top tip from a friend. Find a book that several members of the family may be interested in. Leave the book in a communal place such as the kitchen or living room. Use a bookmark each to mark where you are up to. You can race each other to the end, or take it slow and discuss the bits you are up to!

Literacy Around School

A shout out to Mr King in the maths department for his fabulous mathematical literacy displays in the maths corridor. Thank you Mr King!

Library Opening Times

Open Monday - Thursday before school (from 8am) at break / lunch.

Homework Club every day after school (to 4.30)
FOR HOMEWORK AND QUIET READING

Keep Reading! Mrs Bridge

You are invited to Beechen Cliff's Whole School Book Club

Do you want to expand your reading interests and find out more about different literary genres? Come along to Beechen's Whole School Book Club!

There will be a genre chosen each month. Books will be recommended but you can read anything in the chosen genre. Come to the library on the last term-time Wednesday of the month for a fun and informative hour with staff, pupils and parents, finding out about the history of the genre, sharing recommendations and making friends with similar interests.

A great challenge for anyone interested in books and reading or a way motivate you to try new things. If you come regularly, you can put this towards your DofE Skill (reading) at any level of the award and completed books will count towards your Beechen Character Award.

If any parent, staff member or sixth former has knowledge or interest or of a genre and would like to help out at that month's club, please let me know.

Parents - if you want to attend, email me at

The Beechen Cliff Art Department is pleased to announce their participation in this Year's Young Bath Artists show, which takes place in the Burdall's Yard Gallery From October 21st until November 1st 2025.

This is a showcase of the amazing 6th Form Art and Photography from Beechen Cliff, and is a rare opportunity to view a collection of work from other Bath Schools at the same time.

There is a private view on the 23rd, and students (and parents of students) whose work is in the exhibition are invited to come along that evening.

PSHE—Fire Safety Talks

On Tuesday 30th September, Avon Fire and Rescue Service came into school to deliver important messages to our Year 10 and Year 12.

The poster has a dark navy blue background. At the top, there are two stylized, light orange shapes representing the sides of a face or a stage, each with a dark grey, wavy shape below it. A string of small, glowing white lights is draped across the top. The main title 'QUIZ NIGHT' is written in a large, glowing yellow, outlined font. Below the title, the date 'FRIDAY 17 OCTOBER' is written in a smaller, solid yellow, sans-serif font. Two horizontal white lines separate the date from the venue name 'SCHOOL REFECTORY', which is also in a solid yellow, sans-serif font. Below the venue name, the time '6.30pm for 7pm start' and the ticket price '£12 ticket per person via Arbor' are written in a white, sans-serif font. Below the ticket price, 'Funds towards PTA' is written in a smaller white font. Two more horizontal white lines separate this from the bottom section. The bottom section contains the text 'Raffle', 'Bar', and 'Oktoberfest-themed menu [veggie option available]' in a white, sans-serif font.
