Dear Parents and Carers,

Ignite Day: Employability and Future Horizons

On Thursday 27th November we have our second Ignite Day of the Year which will focus on employability skills and future horizons.

We would be grateful for parent support for this day with our KS4 programme to either take part in Q&A workshops – share your career journey, experiences, and advice with small groups of Year 10 students, or join our 1:1 speed interview sessions – help Year 11 students build confidence, practice interview skills, and showcase their talents.

Your insight and encouragement can make a huge difference in preparing our young people for their future and so we would be really grateful for any support you can give.

If you can help, please fill in this short form sign up here or contact our Head of Careers, Mrs Pascoe via email: careers@beechencliff.mnsp.org.uk

Year 11 Mock examinations

After completing the first part of their GCSE's over the last year, pupils in Year 11 will be taking their first round of Mock Examinations next term between Monday 10th and Tuesday 18th November. These are a vital step in the process of preparing them to take their formal Examinations in the summer and will provide a useful experience of completing examinations in a formal setting, as well as giving them a timely update on how they are progressing in each subject. These Examinations will take place in the Sports Hall and the Library. Please see the timetable of mock exams.

Year 11 Mock Examination Timetable - 2025

In addition to these, there will be a few listening examinations for the Languages taking place in lessons during the week of 3rd November. I would kindly ask all pupils and students to show due respect to the Year 11 pupils by moving silently around these areas whilst Examinations are taking place.

In order to support the Year 11 pupils in revising for these Mock Examinations, we provided Year 11 pupils with a GCSE revision workshop on the morning of Tuesday 14th October, and have published a list of Personalised Learning Checklists (PLCs) detailing what pupils need to cover and how they can best revise for each paper. This document can be accessed using this link:

Year 11 November Mock Examination PLCs

We will hold a GCSE results assembly on Friday 5th December where Year 11 pupils will receive their results. Over the past few years, this has been a valuable and positive experience and I wish the same for the current Year 11 pupils.

Mr A Seal
Deputy Headteacher.

Beechen Cliff joins the Big Assembly for Black History Month

On Tuesday, the whole school got involved in the Big Assembly for Black History Month, joining hundreds of schools across the country in a live event celebrating Black heritage and achievements. The assembly gave students the chance to reflect on the importance of Black History Month and learn about influential figures who have shaped history. Through discussions, videos, and interactive segments, students explored themes of equality, identity, and inclusion. Beechen Cliff received a shout out from the presenters live during the show and three Year 13 boys were beamed live to the nation!

Community is a vital aspect of Beechen Cliff and our aim is that everyone feels part of the school, not just 'comes here' or 'works here'. The makeup of our student and staff body, how we interact and respect each other is crucial to our success. The words we use, our curiosity and respect for others is our own personal responsibility and these messages are consistent.

The promotional video for the assembly is here: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=QXOvDS05wJ8>

The actual assembly recording is here: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=IJ5AiAZ1eTk>

Thank you for your continued support

Mr K Morris

Assistant Headteacher (Conduct and Character Development)

Theme of the week this week is Black History Month.

What is Black History Month?

Black History Month started over a hundred years ago in the US, as a way to bring Black voices and stories to discussions of history. It was first recognised in the UK in the 1980s, organised in October by Akyaaba Addai-Sebo, to acknowledge 150 years of Caribbean freedom and the 100th birthday of Marcus Garvey.

Why do we celebrate it today?

We celebrate Black History Month because celebrating the achievements of people is important and Black History is still underrepresented in mainstream history classes and books. Throughout the 150-year history of the British Red Cross, we have had countless kind and resilient volunteers work with us at the British Red Cross. These people are recognised for their kindness. We celebrate Black History Month by highlighting and recognising the contributions of some Black British Humanitarians.

These people are recognised for their kindness. We celebrate Black History Month by highlighting and recognising the contributions of some Black British Humanitarians.

This week tutor groups will research Black British people members of the tutor group know and that they consider to be humanitarians or that they admire for their good work.

This could be someone famous or well known, or someone from your everyday life. Refer back to their definition of a humanitarian. Students will create a group mind map exploring the following question: 'What makes them an humanitarian?'

Unconscious bias

Unconscious bias is the idea that, without really knowing it, we view people differently. We make assumptions about people based on stereotypes, things we learn and experience and what we see and hear, and this changes how we treat them. It means we favour certain kinds of people and not favour others based on our own ideas.

We invite you to wear red clothing to school on FRIDAY 17th of October

We are taking part in Wear Red Day to support Show Racism the Red Card. We would like as many members of our school community to show their support to the ongoing work to tackle racism at every level of society.

Wear one item of red clothing.

THE LIBRARY NEWS

A calm, quiet space to read and work

Keep Reading!

I've had a few enquiries about Accelerated Reader for Y7 and Y8. Currently we are unable to log in to the AR system. If this changes, I will let you know. In the meantime ensure students are recording their weekly reading in their planner and creating a reading log of finished books in the back of their planner.

If you want any help with reading, please get in touch. My email is:

READING TOP TIP:

FAMILIES: Share a Scare!

We've had good interest in the monthly book club theme of 'horror'. Come to the library to check out one of our books in the horror genre and then head back at the end of the month to discuss. We have bought a number of new titles. Check out some recommendations in this list:

Literacy Around the School

This display in the PE corridor showcases some great books related to sport. We have a whole section dedicated to sport in the library, including lots of biographies, books about specific sports and the ever popular Ultimate Football Heroes series.

Mr Hawkins has also brought my attention to some Bath Rugby idols who have shared some thoughts about reading on Facebook. Perhaps you could share these with your young people! Thanks for making the links between sport and reading, Mr Hawkins!

Grow for Life

Transforming lives through gardening

Beechen Cliff works with Grow for Life who provide social and therapeutic gardening sessions for people affected by low confidence, anxiety, depression or isolation.

Our boys have nothing but positive comments to make about the time they spend with Grow for Life...

ML: "Grow for life inspires us to be more active and to give back, helping other people"

RP: "It's very good to plant a tree. I enjoyed helping dig up the beds".

HF: "I enjoyed digging up potatoes, I even took one home".

CHB: "I've been three times and it's very fun"

AB: "It's good being outside and spending time with friends"

LM: "I enjoyed being outside and being active".

NK: "Really relaxing and really fun, the sound of chopping plants is really satisfying".

Our boys are enjoying their sessions and settling in really well and have recently done an amazing job of pressing 25Litres of apple juice. It's all being filtered, pasteurised and bottled and will be available on Grow for Life's Apple Day on Saturday 18th October.

'Perhaps this photo doesn't make it look the most appetising. This was it our pressed juice waiting to be collected for pasteurisation!' - Alex Eldridge—Director of Grow for Life

Wellbeing

We had the first Student Solution Focused Training Session of the Academic Year last week!

Dear Parents and Carers,

We had the privilege of training some of our Year 13 sixth form students in the solution focused approach. It was a wonderful opportunity to explore the approach together, using the Mindsetter game to support and spark conversations.

The solution focused approach has a focus on -

What's wanted and what is already working in people's lives.

We hope that by learning about the solution focused approach, young people can discover the value of paying attention to what's wanted and what's already working well. This positive way of thinking can support them in their everyday lives and help shape how they see themselves and their future. We also hope they will use solution focused ideas to encourage and support younger students, as well as each other. Over time, they may even grow into ambassadors for the approach, sharing these skills widely and passing them on to the next generation of students.

When reflecting on their learning, the students shared some powerful takeaways:

- They could see how the solution focused approach can be used in everyday life and how that might make a real difference in how they cope and manage challenges.
- They recognised the sense of agency it gives them – being seen and valued as the experts in their own lives.
- They noticed how the approach could also help them support younger students in school, as well as their own friends and family.

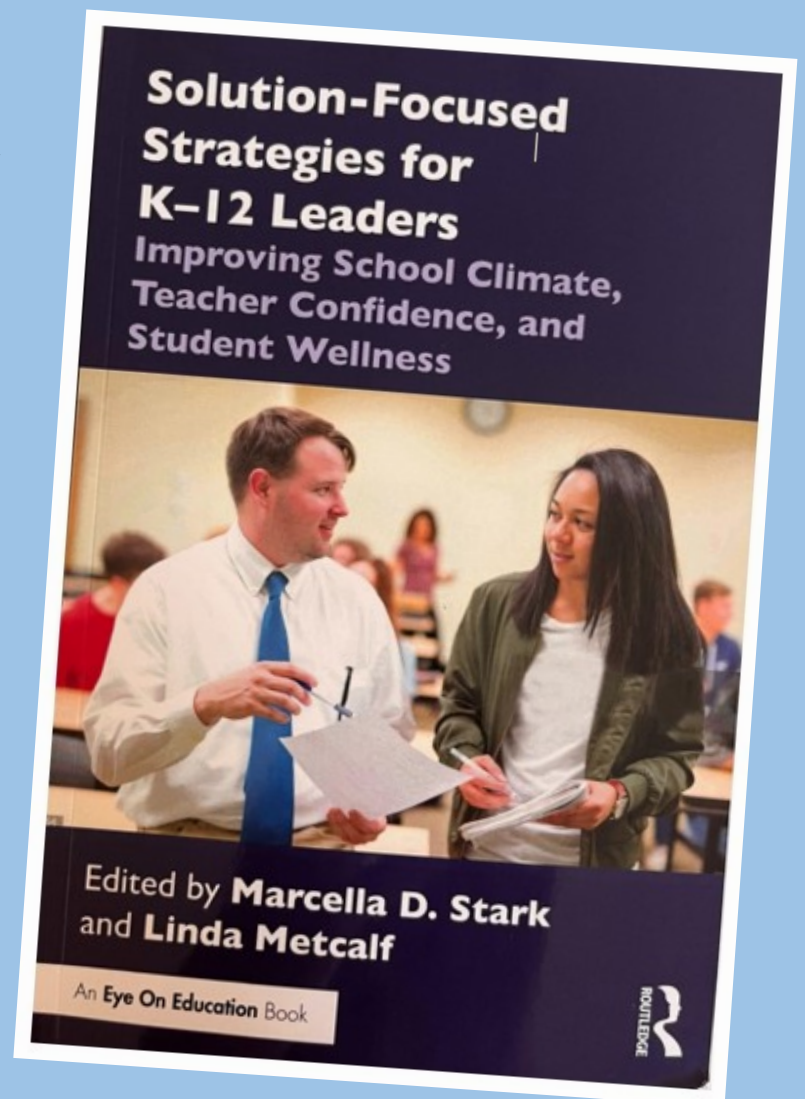

A fantastic start to the year, with these young people already seeing how practical and impactful solution focused thinking can be.

We also wanted to share with you that the story of the Solution Focused approach at Beechen Cliff has been featured in a book!

Tara Gretton, one of our Solution Focused Practitioners has written a chapter.

The book also tells how a solution focused approach can be applied in schools in varying contexts, it's a great read if you would like to learn more about it
